Pathways of Inclusion

Our Vision and Aims

By implementing the project, the aim is to foster the social inclusion and empowerment of visually impaired individuals while raising awareness about their challenges in public life. The objectives from a youth work perspective are as follows:

Enhancing Empathy and Sensitivity: The project seeks to help young participants understand the daily struggles of visually impaired people through activities that simulate these challenges, fostering empathy and sensitivity toward disabilities.

Promoting Accessibility Awareness: Through practical evaluations and discussions about urban environments, participants will become advocates for better accessibility standards, particularly in public transportation and infrastructure.

Encouraging Volunteerism: The project aims to inspire youth to engage in voluntary work, particularly in supporting visually impaired individuals. This will promote a culture of social responsibility and community involvement.

Developing Leadership and Teamwork Skills: Participants will engage in group-based activities, honing their teamwork and leadership abilities as they work together to complete the tasks and disseminate their findings.

Cross-Cultural Collaboration: By bringing together youth from different countries, the project encourages intercultural dialogue and cooperation, highlighting the universal need for inclusivity and equal opportunities for people with disabilities.

Awareness and Dissemination: The project emphasizes creating widespread awareness through dissemination activities like social media campaigns, brochures, and press conferences, aiming to reach a broad audience and influence public opinion on disability inclusion.
